Dear Friends,

The ICA Research Committee (ICACCR) European Research Conference, will be held in Prague, in Sept 14-15.

The conference theme is New Directions for Cooperative Development.
The conference is hosted by the Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague, with the kind support of the Cooperative Federation of the Czech Republic.

The announcement and the call for papers will be published by mid-April. Do stay tuned, and mark the dates (Sept 13-16, allowing for arrival and departure) in your calendar!

As is normally the case, we welcome contributions to the program from would-be participants. Research groups interested in organizing a workshop within the conference are welcome to contact us already now, through yohanan.stryjan@sh.se .

For the Organizing Committee

Yohanan Stryjan, Prof Dr
